

Treasures by the Sea

The world is made round so we cannot see the road that lies ahead... Katlyns consciousness returned slowly. Without opening her eyes she could smell the medicine, hear the beeps of machines. As we journey down lifes road we encounter many unexpected curves. But with each turn we become stronger and more confident people. Katlyns life was no different from ours. From childhood to adult she learned of the uncertainties of life. She found that there are no promises in a tomorrow without going through the conflicts of today. Katlyn searched for the same treasures as we do; identity, security, and true love. The moment she thought her life was complete; Katlyn hit the curve that would change her future forever.
