

Filthy Liar (Second Chance With My Brothers Best Friend, Book One)

Landon Hill is a filthy liar. He was my brothers best friend, my first crush, my first love...my first everything. And then he betrayed me. How many times have I thought about it? How many times have I relived the moment when I found out he left town without ever saying a word? And how long has the memory of him consumed my every waking thought? Three years. That's how long it's been since I've seen or heard from him, the only man I ever loved. The man I now despise. But suddenly, without warning, Landon Hill is back. And to make matters worse, he's somehow become rich beyond imagination, and he's opening some mega business in town and walking around like he owns everything in sight. Including me. But I'll never be able to forgive him, even if the fire still rages between us. In the end, I know that he's never to be trusted. He's a filthy liar.
