

Love, Lies, and Dog Tags

Riley Hart managed to finish school to graduate with a degree to teach English even after losing her mother in the beginning of her final semester. With the help of her friend and fellow teacher, Riley landed a full time job at the local school teaching the senior class for the upcoming school year. What she doesn't expect is to meet Max Marcus, the man who stormed into her life and released the world of grief from her shoulders. Just as she begins to breathe again, her world is shattered to the inevitable. But is she strong enough to handle what the Army throws into her life?
