Excerpt from Primitive Christianity Its Writings and Teachings in Their Historical Connections, Vol. 4 This is a doctrinal work in the form of a Gospel. It uses historical material as a frame for the symbolic pictures in which it embodies the ideas of a Hellenised Paulinism. This historical material is drawn from the earlier Gospels of Mark and Luke, and another, which is not that of Matthew, but perhaps the Gospel according to the Hebrews or some similar apocryphal work. It is with the Gospel of Luke that the Johannine Gospel shows the closest connection, not only in many details, but in the whole arrangement of the material.
